Governor Announces Recipients of the 2021 Idaho Awards for Leadership in Energy Efficiency

Governor Brad Little today announced the recipients of the 2021 Idaho Awards for Leadership in Energy Efficiency. These awards acknowledge Idaho companies that exhibit leadership in their communities by implementing energy efficiency measures at their local facilities/buildings. The recipients of these awards are separated into two categories – buildings and industry – to acknowledge their achievements based on the type of facilities used and the business they operate: buildings and industry.

The recipient for the Building category is:

- Brigham Young University Idaho in Rexburg, Idaho

The recipients for the Industry category are:

- Agropur – Jerome Cheese in Jerome, Idaho
- Alta Forest Products – Naples Mill in Naples, Idaho
- Anheuser-Busch – Malting Plant in Idaho Falls, Idaho
- Clearwater Paper in Lewiston, Idaho

This year, the Governor has also announced a recipient for the Governor's Award for Excellence in Energy Efficiency. This award honors a single facility/organization that demonstrates a commitment to energy efficiency through its efforts to significantly reduce its energy consumption.

The recipient of the Governor's Award is:

- J.R. Simplot's Idaho Plant in Caldwell, Idaho

If you have any questions about these awards, please contact John Chatburn with the Governor's Office of Energy and Mineral Resources. You can reach him at 208-332-1660 or john.chatburn@oer.idaho.gov.
