Idaho Governor's Office of Energy and Mineral Resources

2022 Idaho Awards for Leadership in Energy Efficiency- Application Period is Open

The Governor's Office of Energy and Mineral Resources (OEMR) is pleased to announce it is now accepting applications for the 2022 Idaho Awards for Leadership in Energy Efficiency. These awards acknowledge Idaho organizations that exhibit leadership in implementing energy efficient measures at their local facilities/ buildings.

OEMR invites organizations that have reduced their energy consumption through upgrades to their facilities and/or implemented programming to encourage energy saving behavior to apply. All upgrades or actions taken to reduce energy use, must have been completed in 2021. There are two types of awards available. One award is for organizations engaged in Idaho industries like manufacturing, agriculture, or community maintenance at the local government level. The other award is for buildings that are used for commercial, educational, local government affairs or multi-family purposes.

For further qualifications, a list of potential eligible organizations, a link to the application, and for questions about the award process, please visit the OEMR website at <https://oemr.idaho.gov> or call 208-332-1660. Completed applications should be mailed to Attn: Alexa Sakolsky-Basquill, Idaho Governor's Office of Energy and Mineral Resources P.O. Box 83720, Boise, ID 83720 or to submit applications electronically, please email your application to alexa.sakolsky-basquill@oer.idaho.gov. Applications are due on or before May 31, 2022.
