Governor Announces Recipients of the 2022 Idaho Awards for Leadership in Energy Efficiency

Governor Brad Little announced the recipients of the 2022 Idaho Awards for Leadership in Energy Efficiency. The recipients of these awards are separated into two categories, buildings and industry, to acknowledge their achievements by supporting energy conservation and implementing energy efficiency measures within their facilities in Idaho. Together, these businesses and universities saved 9,723,600 kWhs of energy in their facilities in 2021, resulting in over $600,000 savings.

The recipients under the Buildings category are:

- Involta, LLC - Boise, Idaho
- Boise State University - Boise, Idaho
- Brigham Young University-Idaho - Rexburg, Idaho

The recipients under the Industry category are:

- Anheuser-Busch, Idaho Falls Malting Plant - Idaho Falls, Idaho
- Packaging Specialties, Inc. - Burley, Idaho
- Agropur Inc. - Jerome, Idaho
- Clearwater Paper - Lewiston, Idaho

The Governor has announced a recipient for the Governor's Award for Excellence in Energy Efficiency. This award honors a single facility/organization that demonstrates a commitment to energy efficiency through its efforts to significantly reduce its energy consumption.

The recipient of the Governor's Award is:

- JR Simplot-Smoky Canyon Mine - Wayan, Idaho

If you have any questions about this award, please contact Alexa Bouvier with the Governor's Office of Energy and Mineral Resources at (208) 332-1675 or alexa.bouvier@oer.idaho.gov
